Celebrating 25 years of Spares Care for the Air

In 2011, Baron is celebrating its 25th anniversary with pride in what we have accomplished as a company, enthusiasm for all that's to come in the future, and gratitude in particular to our customers, partners, and employees who have made our success possible.

Because of the pivotal role we play, Baron is committed to creating and maintaining powerful customer relationships built on a foundation of excellence. Our dedication, integrity, and our strong belief in professional business ethics coupled with our industry specific knowledge, experience, vast database and relationships established are qualities still valued and sought by many of our customers to this day. We thank our customers who have remained loyal to us through the years. This loyalty displayed through not only continued business, but also entrusting multi-million dollar inventories with Baron, whether through consignment or long term asset management agreements. These alliances continue to demonstrate their continued faith in our history and our future, providing "Spares Care For The Air".

Experience – Knowledge & Quality.

From our beginnings in 1986, many relationships have been established and a vast amount of industry knowledge obtained. Baron's personnel has supplied commercial aircraft parts and supported airlines around the world for over two decades. This experience and knowledge is what gives you comfort knowing that when dealing with Baron, these exceptional qualities are working for you. Baron has developed a strong reputation for providing exceptional customer support paired with quality parts when you need them and where you need them.

Our value-added services were developed with you in mind.

For any airline organization streamlining its operations, the Baron Group provides expert logistics support in inventory reduction, outsourcing and bulk-sale disposal of surplus parts.

Baron offers value-added services

In the rapidly changing airline industry, solutions require more than careful, fast delivery of quality aviation parts.

In response to growing customer demand, Baron offers customized solutions for its customers and partners in the aviation industry. Among these value-added services are:

- Consignments
- Asset Management
- Exchange Pools
- Purchasing/Sourcing Support
- Demand Planning
- Parts Repair Coordination
- Distributorships
- Excess Inventory Appraisal & Disposal
- Airline AOG Service

Complete support from pre-sales to post sales are being offered by Baron to give the best possible service that suits its customer's needs and requirements.

Baron provides service around the clock to major airlines, MRO (maintenance, repair and overhaul) facilities, OEM's, and suppliers. Parts are supplied for various world class aircraft for repair and overhaul services through a network of approved FAA - certified repair stations.
